COVID-19 SAFETY MANDATES AND DIRECTIVES

Prior to sending our Sunday bulletin to the printer, I received the following e-mail from the Archdiocese of St. Louis, “We appreciate the desire for a return to normalcy as we welcome more of the Faithful back to our Parishes. However, it is imperative that our parishes continue to adhere to the masking requirement and social distancing measures recommended by our health officials. This includes continued vigilance in marking off pews to ensure a safe distance between parishioners and/or family groups:

-  Masks should be worn for the entirety of all public Masses with the exception of Holy Communion.
-  Cleaning of the parish Church should be once a day.
-  Continue to mark off pews to adhere to the social distancing requirements that remain in effect.”

CATHOLIC MINISTRY OF CATECHIST

Tuesday, May 11th, 2021, Pope Francis formally created a new official ministry in the Catholic Church for those who teach the fundamentals of the faith to children and others, opening the position to “men and women of deep faith and human maturity.” Instituting a new ministry of “Catechist” with His Apostolic Letter entitled, “Ancient Ministry,” the Holy Father said those who already serve as Teachers of the Faith in places across the world experience a spiritual calling to do so and are often leaders in their parishes.

The Holy Spirit is calling men and women to set out and encounter all those waiting to discover the beauty, goodness and truth of the Catholic Faith. As pastor, I thank all Parents who are God’s instruments in sharing the Catholic Faith with their children. As a parish, we thank all those men and women who teach in our Parish School of Religion. With this new ministry of “Catechist” it would be a great blessing to our Parish if we could have opportunities for our high school Teens to continue to grow in their Catholic Faith into adulthood. Let’s pray for Men and Women to discern whether God is calling them to this critical ministry.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

The St. Vincent dePaul conference at Annunziata is very grateful for your phenomenal response to our request for assistance for our pregnant teen. Your generous support provided a crib; a stroller; car seat ; lamps and furniture; household supplies; some baby items such as diapers, wipes. lotions, ointments; bottles; baby clothing and some generous gift card for Target, which she will be able to use as the baby grows.

When this young woman moved to her apartment in mid March she had only an air mattress. A few days ago she and the baby returned from the hospital to cozy, home where we pray she and her son will bloom and succeed. You have made a lifechanging difference. Thank you and God bless you!

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there, and I unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
