Dear Parishioners:

Every year parishes within the archdiocese are asked to report on the spiritual and financial welfare of the parish. I also would like to report to you how Annunziata fulfilled its ministry this past year. This week I would like to share with you what has occurred sacramentally in our parish and in the next few weeks on our financial activities.

To begin with Annunziata parish is blessed with members who care for each other and strive for holiness in their lives. This is evident in how you speak about each other and your concern for each other's welfare.

Daily the Eucharist is celebrated here at Annunziata. Regularly 30-40 people attend our 7:00 AM Liturgy. The mass is our greatest prayer act you might consider attending a daily mass. Also Eucharistic devotion occurs daily in our church. Likewise the rosary is recited daily and Marian Perpetual Help devotions occur every Tuesday.

This year our community was blessed and enriched through the following sacraments:

Baptism: 32 children and 1 adult entered into our faith community through the words spoken and the sacramental symbol of water; also 1 new member entered our Church through reception at the Easter Vigil.

Communion: 16 children received the Eucharist for the first time this past year

Confirmation: 29 eighth grade students and 2 adults entered into full communion through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Matrimony: 9 couples exchanged their vows with each other and received God's blessing as they celebrated their love and commitment to each other. The fidelity of a married couple is a wonderful reminder of God's loving relationship with us.

The sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick are available daily. Confession is heard during the week and again on Saturday before the 5 PM liturgy. Anointing of the sick takes place at special services and when requested.

Our parish was also honored to have celebrated the Funeral Liturgies for 22 members of our community. Our parish PSR also provided religious education for over 100 students from our parish. We likewise provide religious education and sacramental celebrations for the students at our Learning Center.

As you can see our parish is blessed with many gifts and a vibrant faith. Let us continue to be good stewards of our Time, Talent and Treasure as we support each other on our faith journey. Anyone interested in being a minister here at the Church of the Annunziata should contact the parish office. We have much to thank the Lord and each other for; let us continue to pray for one another.

Blessings!
Msgr. John Shamleffer

Catholic Charities of St. Louis introduces Hope, a chatbot designed to provide Free 24/7 emotional support through automated chat conversations. The service integrates technology and human support to assist individuals in managing their emotional well-being and accessing appropriate resources when needed.

Hope is a secure, private, and confidential service that is trained by psychologists and ministry professionals and uses self-learning artificial intelligence, meaning the more you chat, the more Hope learns how best to help.

By sending the message "hi" to Hope at (202)949-7249, you are on your way to getting support. Hope can be accessed using the phone number, Catholic Charities' website at ccstl.org., and through Catholic Charities mental health services ministry, Saint Louis Counseling's website at saintlouis counseling.org.

Hospitalized Parishioners

Because of the Federal Privacy Act there is no longer a "clergy list" at any of our hospitals. If you are admitted to a hospital, and they ask you if you would like your priest to be notified, please say: "yes call my parish priest at Annunziata at 314-993-4422."

If you know ahead of time you will be admitted, please call your priest at the Rectory and he will readily offer you the Sacrament of the Anointing.

If you know of a parishioner who is hospitalized, please do not assume we know. Please call the Parish Office 314-993-4422.

PSR Registration Now Open
